• During this semester I had a hard time keeping up with classwork and personal issues, but professor Warren made it possible for me to complete this class by communicating with me about class expectations and helping me with class concepts that I may have missed during our class meeting times. Professor Warren wants to see her students succeed so she gave extra time and support to students that were struggling.

• During our class meeting times Professor Warren made sure that students were able to learn from each other as well as herself and definitely tried and succeeded to make sure all of the students felt included within the lesson provided during the zoom meetings. And her well-versed learning of the course concepts and the way that she taught to us while giving students and open space to talk about the class concepts helped me to learn and feel more comfortable with talking to my peers. Overall, Professor Warren really engaged all of her students to participate and opened my eyes to some history and stats that I otherwise would have not learned about if it weren't for taking her class.

• I would've liked to have had more interactions with my fellow classmates, but I do understand why this couldn't necessarily have been done. Between allowing for flexibility for students to having to have conversations on Zoom, it's hard to have every student participate.
